

PARAGRAPH OF FAITH

God exists and He has laws that we must obey. If we disobey, then we have committed a sin. However, Christ has suffered for our sins. We can be clean if we have faith that leads to repentance. Then we are ready for baptism and the gift of the Holy Ghost. But these ordinances must be performed by priesthood holders. These priesthood holders receive the priesthood the same way that the original apostles did. The priesthood is a great blessing to have on Earth. God has also blessed us with spiritual gifts. To help us remember all of God's blessings and commandments, we have been given the words of holy prophets as found in the Bible and the Book of Mormon. God still reveals truth to prophets in our day. Both ancient and modern day prophets testify that Christ will return and reign on Earth. However, everyone has the right to believe what they want. We respect others rights as we try to obey all laws, be good citizens, and strive to be a righteous people.
